

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southerly winds.

THE CONVENTION to nominate a democratic candidate for the legislature from this city and county will be held at the Opera House, to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock.

FAIRFAX ITEMS.—Bishop A. M. Randolph, of the diocese of Virginia, will preach in Zion Episcopal Church, Fairfax C. H., on Sunday next at 11 o'clock a. m., and at Falls Church in the afternoon.

Capt. W. P. Graham, of Falls Church, has sold his property in that town and gone to California on a prospecting tour.

A short while ago, while Mr. B. F. Nalis and wife, of Ball Run, were visiting friends in Stafford county, some one entered their carriage house and stole the wheels from their buggy.

We were rather surprised to learn that Mr. T. R. Sangster would have charge of the Falls Church school for the ensuing term. Such was our information, but it seems there was some misunderstanding in the matter; that while he thought he had been elected teacher, the trustees say they have not elected him. At the meeting of the county school board, held last week, the point was raised that Mr. Sangster has been actively engaged in the sale of coupons, thus crippling the public school system, and it was held by some that it was wrong to give a man thus employed, the best school in the county. We are informed, also, that the school trustees found it impossible to grant certain privileges which Mr. Sangster required. Mr. S. being a young lawyer, naturally desires to attend the county and circuit courts, but the trustees were unwilling to have the school closed on court days.—Herald.

ASSAULT.—Yesterday evening Harry Hammond, the 14 year old son of Mr. J. W. Hammond, endeavored to drive a little colored boy named Reynolds from the pavement of Mr. Hammond's store, where he was scattering some seeds which were laid out for sale, when the two boys got into a scuffle. Little Reynolds, a sister of the boy, who has been employed as a servant in the house of Mr. Hammond, saw the scuffle, ran out upon the sidewalk and, grabbing little Harry, threw him to the ground, cutting the back of his head. Later, Little went to Mr. Hammond's house, where she was taken to task by Mrs. H. for her treatment of her son. The girl became very impudent and refused to leave the house when ordered. Mrs. Hammond then struck her with a towel which she had in her hand, when Little assaulted her, knocked her down and severely bruised her face. Mr. Hammond's father, an old, decrepit man, went to the assistance of his daughter in law when, he, too, was knocked down by the girl who then ran from the house. Later Mr. Hammond's son, Edward, hearing of the affair, went to the house of the girl's mother and forced open the door, threatening revenge against the girl, but she was arrested and taken to the station house unharmed. This morning the girl was fined $5 for an assault on Harry Hammond and $5 for an assault on Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and a warrant having been gotten out for Edward Hammond, charged with disorderly conduct, he was fined $5. He took an appeal.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild, with three prisoners and one lodger at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Lacy Elzey, colored, charged with harboring a fugitive from justice, was discharged.

Lettie Reynolds, a colored girl, arrested by officer Simpson, charged with assaulting and beating Harry Hammond, was fined $3, and for an assault on Mrs. J. W. Hammond was fined $5.

Edward Hammond, arrested by officer Simpson, charged with disorderly conduct in breaking in the door of Catherine Reynolds, the mother of Lettie, was fined $5. He took an appeal.

One white and two colored boys, arrested by officers Davis and Brenner, charged with cruelly beating a dog, were discharged.

Edward Meade, arrested by officers Bettis and Sherwood, for an assault on Georganna Lucas, was locked up.

Three small white boys, charged with an assault on an old colored man, were discharged.

THE L. O. O. F. FAIR.—The fair for the benefit of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, L. O. O. F., will open at McBurney's Hall, on Monday, October 17. The following contributions have been received by the committee in charge:

Through R. D. Smith—from Satterthwaite, Chi. 25c; Allen, Ginter & Co., Richmond 250c; Grayson, Smart & Skinner, Baltimore & boxes crates; F. Friederich & Son, Baltimore 5 boxes crates.

F. Peake, carrying knapsack and fork; J. T. Creighton & Son, one tin chamber set; Chas. Roy, tin chamber set; W. McKim, 2 bird cages; R. Porter, brewing co., 10 dozen export beer.

A friend, $1.

A CHESAPEAKE LIGHT SHIP.—The $60,000 light ship, built to serve as a guide to the entrance to Chesapeake bay, has been completed and is now at Portsmouth being fitted out. The vessel will be anchored about ten miles off Cape Charles, and, in addition to the lights, will have a steam fog signal. James H. Twiford has been appointed keeper of the light ship at a salary of $1,000 per annum; James H. McDonald, engineer, and James W. Nicholson, assistant engineer. There will also be an assistant keeper, a cook and five seamen. The Cape Charles gas buoy, which has given trouble right along, will not be lighted any more. The light ship will be ready for work shortly.

ARRESTED.—Yesterday morning, at the Baltimore and Potomac depot, in Washington, an officer, on the authority of a telegram from Lynchburg, arrested a young woman named Mary Rockett, who had just arrived from that place. She denied that she had committed any offense, but thought she had been arrested on complaint of Wm. Taylor. She had in her possession a gold watch which she said Taylor had given her, and because she had refused to marry him she supposed he had caused her arrest. She said she would rather go to prison than marry him. She is held for the Virginia authorities.

RAISED.—The dredges Alaska and Asia have succeeded in raising one of the large boilers of the wrecked steamer Armenia and have deposited it on the wharf at the foot of Wilkes street. The other boiler will be raised in a few days.

POCAHONTAS.—Mr. Fryer, the head of the Arrow Steamship Company, returned from Baltimore to day, having closed a contract with Cortes & Co., of Baltimore, for the iron and the iron work of their ship. That iron will be brought here on barges, some of it, possibly, in entire sections, and some is expected to arrive during the next ten days. The work of putting it together will commence as soon as it arrives, and when well under way will, Mr. Fryer says, be prosecuted continuously night and day by eight-hour gangs, as many as six hundred men being engaged towards the completion of the work.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.—The Eighth Annual Convention of the American Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance will be held in Christ Church in this city on the 27th and 30th of this month. The convention will be unsectarian, and its object is the promotion of the cause of foreign missions. There will be between 300 and 400 delegates present from the different seminaries in the United States.

NEW STORE.—A new dry goods, notion, and millinery store, to be known as the "Washington Fair," will be opened at 428 King street this evening. The stock of goods is complete in every branch, and the proprietor extends a cordial invitation to the citizens generally to be present at the opening.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Philip Hazell, of Richmond, is visiting Gen. W. H. F. Lee at Ravensworth.

Mr. Louis Barley will leave to-morrow for Texas, where he goes to consummate the sale of a tract of land in which he has an interest.

CORPORATION COURT.—The October term of this court will begin on Monday next. This is grand jury term, at which criminal cases will be tried. The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Curran, indicted for the murder of officer Arnold, is set for this term.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—Delegates were elected last night from the county to the legislative nominating convention to be held in this city to-morrow as follows: From Jefferson District, Messrs. E. W. Johnston and E. T. Sisson; from Arlington District, Messrs. Millard F. Birch and E. B. VanEmery. Alternates, Messrs. Joseph Field and John T. Birch.
